

PRESIDENT UNVEILS NEW 'FIVE-YEAR PLAN' AT FACULTY MEETING

Stating that "our choice for the Eighties must be qualitative success, not quantitative survival," President Joseph C. Burke Tuesday proposed a new five-year plan that would reduce the College's enrollment gradually by 400 students and resolve its major staffing problems. "Planning can turn potential problems into creative possibilities," he said in an address to faculty marking the beginning of the 1980-81 academic year at Plattsburgh.

Burke stated that maintaining the institution's current enrollment of approximately 5,700 students would only perpetuate staffing problems. More importantly, he said, it could endanger both admissions standards and the balance between the liberal arts and professional studies. He pointed out that Plattsburgh ranks at or near the bottom in comparison with other senior colleges in State University on six measures commonly used to compare funding and staffing at similar institutions. "Our budget request," President Burke said, "argues that the state should allow us to diminish our problem of underfunding and understaffing by reducing our total enrollment, since it apparently cannot give us additional monies and positions to correct these disparities."

The President's proposed five-year plan also calls for reallocation and reassignment of personnel to be made possible by retrenchment, after the spring term of 1982, of the Educational Research and Demonstration Center (Campus School) and by the elimination of the College's Comprehensive Education Center. These actions, proposed reluctantly, he said, will allow the College to meet pressing needs for faculty and staff without additional positions from the state, and will facilitate the proposed combinations of faculty into multidisciplinary "Centers" by providing positions for their directors. The Centers would be established for "Art, Music and Theatre," which would include faculty from those three departments; for "Human Services," which would be comprised of faculty from sociology, child and family service, counseling and speech and hearing; for "Environmental Science," which would include faculty from that discipline and from the geology and geography departments; for "Business and Economics;" and for "Teacher Education."

"Establishment of these Centers," said Burke, "should foster interdisciplinary teaching and research on our campus and encourage public service and artistic performance for our community. They could also attract more quality students to Plattsburgh by highlighting faculty strengths in related fields. As the only baccalaureate and graduate institution within a one-hundred-mile radius, our College should continue to serve as the intellectual and cultural center for the North Country. The proposed Centers could begin to transform this dream into a reality."

President Burke concluded by encouraging faculty to debate the plan with the intent to improve it with creative suggestions for modification of specific proposals. "This plan," he noted, "is not 'written in stone.'" The final plan will set the style and substance of this campus for the next decade. I hope that this proposal is discussed with the care and creativity that our collective future obviously deserves."

COLLEGE RANKS THIRD IN SPONSORED RESEARCH

The annual report of the State University Research Foundation for 1979 indicates that for the year ending June 30, 1979, Plattsburgh State ranked third among SUNY's Arts and Science Colleges in funding of research projects and other sponsored activities. Only Brockport and Buffalo reported greater research income totals. With $985,590 in grants for that year, the College's research revenue was more than $200,000 greater than that generated by the nearest of any of the remaining seven senior colleges. This is especially noteworthy in that the College ranks seventh among the ten senior colleges in the University in the size of its teaching faculty.

GOVERNOR CAREY APPOINTS NEW COUNCIL MEMBER

COLLEGE RECEIVES $680,880 GRANT FROM NIH

The College has received a grant of $680,880 from the National Institute of Health (NIH) in support of ongoing scientific research into how cells regulate themselves. Principal investigator of the project, funded for a five-year period effective September 1, is Dr. Richard D. Moore, professor of biophysics. The grant is the third awarded to the College by NIH since the mid-1960's for research proposals authored by Professor Moore.

The project title is, "The Role of the Sodium Pump and Acidity in Cellular Action of Insulin." The primary objective of the long-term investigation will be to further explain the mechanism by which insulin exerts its effect on muscle cells. Previous work by Moore and his research team has been directed toward understanding the function of the sodium pump — the life sustaining enzyme system contained in every living cell. Although he is a stalwart advocate of theoretical research as opposed to research aimed at the solution of specific problems, Moore foresees practical implications in the laboratory research underway at Plattsburgh.

"In seeking to determine the effect insulin has on regulation of the sodium pump," he said, "we may also derive new information about the side effects of insulin when it is used in the treatment of diabetics or in the treatment of people suffering from heart disease."

Moore's grant proposal was one of more than 100 considered by NIH for similar research projects and scored among the top 10 reviewed by that agency. It has been defined by colleagues familiar with Moore's work as "an excellent project that is likely to provide important new information."

The research team, in addition to Moore, will include two post-doctoral research associates, a research assistant, a research technician, one graduate student and three or four Plattsburgh State undergraduates. In addition to personnel support, the grant will cover expenses for the purchase of equipment, for supplies, books and journals, for expenses of visiting scientists, and for travel in the United States and abroad.

The grant in the first year will provide $147,578 to the research effort.

"The success of Dr. Moore and his colleagues in obtaining significant grants for important work from prestigious and discriminating agencies of the federal government is further indication of the high quality of faculty and scholarship available at Plattsburgh State," commented College President Joseph C. Burke.

COLLEGE COUNCIL SUBMITS $19 MILLION BUDGET TO SUNY TRUSTEES

Next year's budget and this fall's preliminary enrollment were the main topics on the College Council's agenda last week. The Council agreed to submit to the SUNY Trustees a budget for 1981-82 totalling $19,270,062. The budget contains only 1% for inflation and an additional .4% for program improvements. The Council approved the budget stipulating that "the College, with such a budget, must have the flexibility to reallocate its own resources." Preliminary enrollment figures show that, as of September 4, 5,578 students have enrolled and 3,082 students have taken rooms in the residence halls. This means that the dormitories are about 9% over capacity, with about 250 rooms tripled. The Council, chaired by Plattsburgh attorney, Louis Wolfe, also met with the Executive Committee of the Faculty Senate to exchange views on President Burke's five-year plan.

CORIGLIANO TO CHAIR SUNY SENATE'S STUDENT AFFAIRS COMMITTEE

Thomas A. Corigliano, coordinator of academic advisement, has accepted an invitation to serve as chairman of the State University Faculty Senate Committee on Student Affairs for the 1980-81 academic year.

Corigliano, a member of the College's professional staff since 1968, has been a member of the University Faculty Senate's Student Affairs Committee for the past two years. His role as chairman will be to provide leadership to a group of faculty and staff representing SUNY's 64 campuses whose principal concern is to provide means for effective communications University-wide, particularly among students, faculty and administration.

In recent years, the Committee has dealt with a variety of issues of importance to the University, including advisement of students, attrition and retention of students, and problems of vandalism and alcohol use on SUNY campuses. Its initial meeting of the current academic year will be held in Albany, on September 12 and 13, during the University Senate's annual Committee Retreat.

BEACH NAMED INTERIM DIRECTOR OF CANADIAN STUDIES AND INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION

Dr. J. Richard Beach, associate professor of geography, has been appointed Director of Canadian Studies and International Education for the 1980-81 academic year, succeeding Dr. Earl Fry who resigned in August. The internal search which led to Dr. Beach's appointment will be followed this fall by an international search for the director position.

Dr. Charles Warren, dean of arts and science, commented, "We are fortunate to have on our faculty someone with the requisite combination of expertise in international education and experience in administration. We are truly grateful that Dr. Beach has accepted on very short notice this important responsibility for the upcoming year."

Dr. Beach joined the College in 1970 and has been actively involved in Canadian Studies since the program's inception. He is a recipient of the prestigious SUNY Chancellor's Award for Excellence in Teaching.

COLLEGE'S FUEL CONSERVATION EFFORTS RECEIVE NATIONAL RECOGNITION

The College's successful efforts to reduce fuel oil consumption by 98,000 gallons last year were recognized by the National Association of College and University Business Officers and the U.S. Steel Foundation with a 1980 Cost Reduction Incentive Award. Thirty-five college and university campuses received the monetary awards at the NACUBO annual meeting in St. Louis. Vice President for Finance Bernard J. Seawell accepted the award for the College.

The College was recognized for its initial plan last year to cut back oil consumption in its vapor absorption air conditioning systems by means of climate control. Air conditioning units were activated only if area temperatures remained at a minimum of 78F. for a 48-hour period. The plan realized savings of more than $45,000, and has continued to conserve considerable amounts of fuel oil this summer.

COLLEGE AND CLINTON COUNTY: $57 MILLION PARTNERSHIP

An economic impact study, conducted by the Technical Assistance Center and released this summer, showed that in 1979, the College generated more than $57 million in indirect spending in Clinton County. Direct expenditures by the institution, faculty, staff, students, and visitors to the College totalled $27.5 million. A "multiplier" of 2.5, which means that every $1 of direct expenditure generated $2.50 in actual spending locally, was used to estimate that the total impact of the College on the region last year was $57 million. The study indicates that $1 of every $11 spent on retail sales in Clinton County last year was generated by spending by College employees, students, and the institution itself. Plattsburgh State employees spent an average $12,311 locally last year, while the 5,500-plus students averaged $1,811 in expenditures. Copies of the booklet "Plattsburgh State and Clinton County — a $57 Million Partnership" are available in the Office of College Relations.

CANADIAN STUDIES, CONTINUING EDUCATION SPONSOR INTERNATIONAL INVESTMENT CONFERENCE

Leading officials in government, business and higher education in the United States and Canada will explore anticipated investment patterns in various regions of both countries during a conference on "Investment Strategies for the North American Market" to be held at the Lake Placid Hilton on Thursday and Friday, October 9 and 10. The conference is being sponsored by the College, its Center for the Study of Canada, its business and economics department and its division of continuing education. Faculty economists and administrators from Plattsburgh and from Carleton University in Ottawa, and McGill University in Montreal, will serve as moderators of the conference sessions.

Among the featured speakers will be Vincent P. Barabba, director of the U.S. Bureau of the Census, who will serve as a panelist at the 9:30 a.m. session opening the conference on Thursday. He will discuss "Demographics and Investments During the 1980's." Joining Barabba at the session will be Thomas Pierpoint, director of the Invest in U.S.A. Program of the U.S. Department of Commerce, and Forrest Rogers, economic advisor for the Bank of Nova Scotia in Toronto.

"Both the United States and Canada are attractive investment havens," said Dr. J. Richard Beach, professor and director of the College's Center for the Study of Canada and one of the organizers of the conference. "Their essentially capitalistic market structures, political stability, secured sources of energy and raw materials, deflated dollars and their major investment incentives contribute to that appeal. Indeed," he said, "it is estimated that as much as $800 billion in U.S. currency is now held abroad, and that foreign investors are anxious to expend some of this money in the North American marketplace. Our conference is designed to examine the international regulatory climate, acquisition and merger strategies and, among related topics, the investment potential in free trade zones."

The remainder of the Thursday program will consist of sessions featuring executives representing the First Boston Corporation of New York; Wood Gundy, Ltd. of Toronto; Citibank; the U.S. Commerce Department's Office of Foreign Investment in the United States; the Research and Analysis Branch of the Foreign Investment Review Agency in Ottawa; and the Antitrust Division of the U.S. Department of Justice.

A banquet program that evening will be highlighted by a keynote address by Richard B. Palmer, president of Texaco Canada, Inc., who will speak on "The Impact of Energy and Natural Resource Availability of North American Direct Investment."

Friday's conference sessions will consist of panel discussions by ranking officers of the Department of Regional Economic Expansion in Ottawa; the Bank of Montreal; Goldman Sachs of New York; the New York State Department of Commerce; the Foreign Trade Zones Board of the U.S. Department of Commerce; and the F.W. Myers and Co., Inc. Customs Brokers of Rouses Point.

SHAKESPEAREAN HISTORY SCHOLAR IN RESIDENCE

The first of several Distinguished Visiting Professors, Dr. Charles Shattuck, is in residence on the College campus. Shattuck, who taught in the English and the Speech and Theater Departments at the University of Illinois for 45 years, will be here for six weeks presenting lectures to students, faculty, and the public on the stage history of Shakespeare. Shattuck became intrigued with the production of Shakespearean plays many years ago and has devoted much of his life to research and writing on how the productions changed to suit the audiences of the time. He considers his most important contribution to be a catalogue of promptbooks (The Shakespeare Promptbooks) which he published in 1969 after many years spent locating and studying these books. He has done extensive research into the Shakespearean productions of William Charles Macready and Macready's influence on other producers of the Bard's plays. Shattuck, who was President of the Shakespeare Association of America in 1979, is sad to see "a decline in interest in Shakespeare among undergraduates," but very happy to see a swelling of general public interest as shown by the growing number of Shakespearean festivals around the country.

FOUNDATION'S CORPORATE GIVING PROGRAM AT 89% OF GOAL

The College Foundation's corporate giving program is at 89% of its goal of $48,500. Chairman Daniel L. Jerry reports that $43,575 has been donated to date by area businesses and industries. In addition, pledges have been made totaling $7,100 by an additional thirteen businesses. The largest increase thus far has been by the Harris Corporation of Champlain, which increased its gift by $1,000 for a total donation to the Foundation in 1980 of $3,000. Most of the funds raised through corporate giving are unrestricted, and are used for undergraduate scholarships.

UPWARD BOUND AND SPECIAL SERVICES RECEIVE GRANTS TOTALING $1.2 MILLION

The Upward Bound and Special Services Programs have been awarded grants totaling $1.2 million from the U.S. Department of Education to continue their programs on the College campus. Upward Bound will receive approximately $660,000 over the next three years, while Special Services has been funded approximately $628,000 over the next four years.

Upward Bound, in existence on campus since 1966, is designed to provide motivation and skills necessary for educationally and economically disadvantaged high school students to enter post-secondary education. During the past 14 years, according to Director Peter Luguri, approximately 575 students from 24 high schools in the target area of Clinton, Essex, and Franklin counties have participated in this program. A 10-year study indicates a high degree of success — showing that 69% of the students served have gone on to post-secondary education. The overall rate of graduating seniors from the same schools continuing their education is only 51%. Seventy percent of the Upward Bound students remain in the post-secondary program, and 49% attain their degrees on time.

The Special Services Program provides basic skills instruction and counseling to students who have been accepted at the College, and who are educationally, financially, and/or culturally disadvantaged; physically handicapped; or who have a limited ability to speak English although they are U.S. citizens. Director Elizabeth Pasti, explained that the goal of the program is to keep these students in College, and to provide the services they need to enable them to succeed with their studies. Approximately 325 students each year, primarily freshmen and sophomores, participate in classes, small groups, individual sessions, and tutoring by trained peer counselors through SSP.

Both programs received the funding after competitive bidding, which saw similar programs on several campuses denied continued funding.

DISCUSSIONS OF FIVE-YEAR PLAN SET

A series of general meetings has been scheduled by College President Joseph C. Burke for discussion of the proposed five-year plan. The first session will be held on Wednesday, October 8 in the College Center Music Lounge; the second will be Tuesday, October 21 in Ballroom B; and the third will take place on Thursday, November 13 in the Music Lounge. All meetings are set for 4:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. and are open to faculty, staff and students. Prior to the general meetings, President Burke, Vice President Supple, and Deans Troisi and Warren will be meeting with faculty of the various departments.

COLLEGE'S PERMANENT COLLECTION TO BE DISPLAYED AT SUNY CENTRAL

Works from the College's permanent art collection have been chosen for display in Albany at the SUNY Central Administration Offices from October 11 through November 2. Some of the works selected for the display are Picasso's "Artist and Model," Durer's "Disposition," "Self-Portrait" by Cezanne and Vlaminic's "The Bridge." A large collection of the German expressionist prints and some of the items from the Rockwell Kent Gallery will also be included. According to Edward Brohel, director of the College's art galleries, Plattsburgh is only the second of the SUNY senior arts and science colleges to have its permanent collection chosen for display.

FACULTY MEMBERS RETURN FROM CHINA

Dr. Eugene Link, professor emeritus of history; Dr. George Pasti, professor of history; and Theresa Herlihy, assistant professor of Nursing, have recently returned from a trip to China. They toured southwestern China, visiting the cities of Peking, Chengtu, Kunming, Nanning, and Kwangchow (formerly Canton). According to Dr. Link, the group was shown schools, day care centers, factories and hospitals, where, Dr. Link said, they witnessed acupuncture treatments.

While in China, they also made the acquaintance of a prominent Chinese artist, Chi Ke, who is an admirer of Rockwell Kent. Chi Ke has written about Kent and sent two Chinese journals back to the United States with Link. The journals indicate that many other Chinese artists are greatly influenced by Kent's style, as seen by photographs of some of their work.

The group, which also visited Tokyo and Hong Kong, included Mrs. Beulah Link, and area residents Janet Deeb, Suanne Pasquarella, Genevieve Douglas, and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Kelly.

ADMISSIONS RECRUITMENT SEASON UNDERWAY

Members of the College's Admission Office staff launched the new student recruitment season at Plattsburgh State this week with visits to high schools and two-year colleges in the northern and western sections of New York State. During the 36-week recruitment season, admissions counselors and other College staff members expect to contact approximately 8,500 prospective students personally in attempts to generate applications for admission for the spring term beginning in January and for next fall. In addition to northeastern New York, the regions where visits by admissions representatives will be concentrated most heavily include Long Island, Westchester County, the Hudson and Mohawk Valleys, the Capital District, and Central New York.

PROFESSIONAL STUDIES CHAIRPERSONS LEARNING MBO

The chairpersons group in Professional Studies, along with Deans Warren and Roman will be participating in a Management by Objectives Seminar during the next month. The four-session workshop will be conducted by Mr. Donald Gardner, who has led more than 25 seminars on this subject for administrators in education. The workshop, being held for the first time at the College, will deal with developing long-range and continuing goals in professional studies, objectives and evidence of meeting objectives, writing of position descriptions, evaluation techniques, and the techniques of internal communications.

INTRAMURAL PARTICIPATION HEAVY

The largest number of students ever to participate in the fall intramural program are enjoying touch football, soccer, coed ultimate frisbee, and men's and women's volleyball. According to intramural coordinator Leith Bardon, 1,676 students are participating in the five sports offered, and the program is growing every year. The area of highest interest appears to be women's volleyball, where 678 women have formed 47 teams. All sports will feature league competition during the fall and will be capped off at the end of the season with single elimination playoffs to determine the intramural winners.

The first will be an exhibition hockey game against the Division I team from Colgate University. The game, the Cardinals' first home game of the season, will be held on November 8 at the field house. The second will see the Plattsburgh State basketball team take on the Portugal National Team. The international team will be touring the U.S. and has agreed to play Plattsburgh on November 12 at the field house. Irv Waite, chairman of the special events committee, said, "We're happy to be able to put on these two events, both to bring to the community some fine hockey and basketball, and to be able to help some of our athletes who work so hard on our teams."

CHANCELLOR WHARTON COMMENDS PRESIDENT BURKE'S ANNUAL REPORT

SUNY Chancellor Clifton R. Wharton, Jr. has commended President Burke on his 1979-80 annual report for the academic year. In a letter to Burke, the Chancellor states "it appears to be a thoughtful, forward-looking document which essentially attempts to reallocate resources in new ways to maintain or improve existing campus strengths. In this respect, it continues a posture which Plattsburgh has maintained for some years." The Chancellor added: "The 'highlights' section of your report provides an interesting array of information which gives insight into the dynamic impact of the campus in the community and the educational activities which are going on at the campus. I am particularly pleased to see your special emphasis on recruiting talented students, the beneficial effect of the Freshmen Seminars program, the decline in attrition rates, and the improvement in student advisement. In addition, the achievements of your faculty and the various grants which the College has received are important reflections of the increasing stature and quality of the institution. You and your colleagues are to be congratulated for all the achievements which the campus has made during a year of considerable budgetary difficulty."

MRS. KEHOE, DAUGHTER OF FORMER COLLEGE HEAD, AND 1914 ALUMNUS, DIES AT 86

Mrs. Elizabeth Kehoe, 86, daughter of Dr. George K. Hawkins, chief executive of the Plattsburgh Normal School from 1898 to 1933, died at her Court Street home in Plattsburgh on Tuesday. A distinguished member of the College alumni body, Mrs. Kehoe was a 1914 graduate of Plattsburgh. She was the wife of the late Harry P. Kehoe, prominent Plattsburgh attorney, who served on the Board of Visitors, later to become the College Council, for 22 years — the last seven as chairman. Kehoe passed away in 1961.

President Burke, in learning of Mrs. Kehoe's death, issued the following statement: "With the death of Elizabeth Kehoe, the College at Plattsburgh has lost a much-loved friend and alumna, a benevolent advocate of its educational purpose, and the individual thought of and mentioned most reverentially at any reference to the College's rich heritage. She was a kind and gracious woman and an inspiration to faculty and staff and to thousands of alumni who knew her, admired her and came to regard her affectionately."

EXCITING WEEKEND PLANNED FOR HOMECOMING '80

A full schedule of events is planned for alumni and students alike during this weekend's Homecoming '80. Festivities will kick off Friday evening with a Welcome-Back reception at President and Mrs. Burke's home, followed by an informal Reunion Buffet at the College Center. Rounding out the evening, guitarist Jeff Beck will perform at the Field House.

On Saturday, the Homecoming Parade will step off from the Plattsburgh Plaza at 10:00 a.m., with the homecoming king and queen reigning. All alumni in honored classes (those ending in 0 or 5) are encouraged to ride with their classmates in the parade. Following the parade, the President's Cup and the Scholastic Cup will be awarded by President Burke. Reunion luncheons, including a Golden Anniversary Luncheon honoring the Class of 1930, will be held in several locations around the city. Sports fans will enjoy two soccer games, as both the men's and the women's teams meet Siena College on the athletic field behind the Field House. The men will compete at 1:00 p.m. and the women will take the field at 3:00 p.m.

On Saturday evening, President and Mrs. Burke will host a cocktail reception in the College Center Blue Lounge, which will be followed by a Dinner-Dance in the Ballroom, with the Dutchess Community College Jazz Ensemble providing the music. Students will also enjoy an evening of dancing at a semi-formal at the Field House.

Sunday morning will feature a buffet brunch, followed by something new. At 9:00 a.m., Admissions Director David Truax will conduct an orientation session for alumni interested in recruiting students. Reservations may be made for alumni events until noon on Friday by calling Sue Quinn at 564-2090.

FALL ENROLLMENT UP DUE TO HIGHER RETENTION RATE

The State University of New York has released figures indicating the fall, 1980 enrollment for state campuses to be the largest overall enrollment since the record high in the fall of 1975. The total enrollment figure of 197,757 is 6,449 over the projected fall, 1980 goal and up 6,554 from the fall, 1979 actual figure.

Preliminary figures for Plattsburgh State University College follow the SUNY-wide trend of an increase in enrollment, although slightly fewer new students were accepted this year. The most recent data shows that 6,281 students are enrolled at the College, up from 6,155 in 1979.

College President Joseph C. Burke commented that Plattsburgh admitted just under 1,800 new students this year, slightly fewer than were admitted last year.

According to Burke, the 2.5% over-enrollment is due to a higher retention rate for Plattsburgh students. Fewer students dropped out or transferred to other colleges than had been anticipated.

The result of the increased number of students on campus has been tripling in the dormitories. Six hundred and seventy-five students are presently living three-to-a-room in double rooms.

Quality indicators for this year's freshman class have not yet been finalized, but appear to be very close to last year's. In 1979, the mean high school average of new students was 85.1 while their mean score on the verbal SAT was 446, and their mean score on the math SAT was 500.

Although figures for this fall indicate an increase in enrollment, Burke's Five-Year Plan actually calls for a reduction of 400 students over the next five years. The drop in enrollment, according to the college president, has been proposed in order to maintain a high level of quality students in the face of declining population statistics and budget cuts.

NEARLY 200 STUDENTS VOLUNTEER FOR CAMPUS GUIDE DUTY

In an overwhelming response to the Admissions Office's request for campus guides, nearly 200 students have volunteered to serve. Admissions Director David Truax is very pleased with this turnout and said he believes this "demonstrates an attitude of pride and enthusiasm on the part of our student body toward this College." Campus guides volunteer their time to show prospective students and their parents the College campus. A recent survey of freshmen indicated that these campus visits were one of the most important factors influencing their decision to attend Plattsburgh State.

DIVISIONAL CHAIRPERSONS NAMED FOR CAMPUS UNITED WAY DRIVE

Dr. Nicholas Troisi, campus coordinator for the 1980 Clinton County United Way Fund Drive, has announced the divisional chairpersons for the College's portion of the drive. They are: Academic Affairs — Vice President Jerome Supple; Professional Studies — Dr. Ross Papke; Arts and Sciences — Dr. Charles Warren; Continuing Education — Dr. Griffin Walling; General Administration — Dr. Thomas Williamson; Business Affairs — Clara LaRose; General Services — Malcolm Lavery; Student Services — Laura Dominy; Maintenance and Operation — Malcolm Collin; Maintenance and Operation (custodial) — Gerald Dominy; Marriott — James Moran; and Students — William Laundry.

Troisi also announced that three informational meetings will be held for anyone interested in a brief film presentation and discussion on the United Way Story. The sessions are set for October 20 at 11 a.m., and October 23 at 10:00 a.m. and again at 5:15 p.m. All three meetings will be held in the College Ballroom.

COLLEGE COUNCIL TOURS CAMPUS; IMPRESSED WITH FACILITIES

Prior to their regular monthly meeting, College Council members toured the campus, visiting MacDonough Hall, Hawkins Hall, the Field House, the Faculty Office Building, and the College Center. Council President Louis Wolfe and several Council members said after the tour that they were "very impressed with the condition (cleanliness and maintenance) of the buildings."

The Council then returned to the Kehoe Board Room for their meeting and discussed the College facilities with Vice President Seawell, Facilities Director J. Derek Allen and Director of the Physical Plant Malcolm Collin.

The goal for faculty and staff is $21,300, while students will be asked to contribute $4,600. COLLEGE RECEIVES 10TH CONTRACT FROM 8TH AIR FORCE

For the tenth year, the College has signed a contract to provide leadership workshops for the 8th Air Force. The $82,600 contract for one year (October 1, 1980 - September 31, 1981) calls for 44 workshops to be held at 14 Strategic Air Command bases in Eastern United States. Dr. Melvin Donaho, professor of communications, and the principal administrator of the contract, explained that the 36-hour workshops are offered to the top three non-commissioned officer ranks in the Air Force, but that many officers also take the course. Participants receive two hours of credit from the College. The curriculum is structured to meet the supervisory needs of Air Force personnel, and covers such topics as motivation, listening, delegation of duties, and supervising people with personal or financial problems. According to Donaho, the total amount of the contracts over the past ten years is well over the $1 million mark.

NOVEMBER DESIGNATED ALCOHOL AWARENESS MONTH

November has been designated Alcohol Awareness Month, according to the office of Campus Life. Various activities have been planned to help increase the awareness of alcohol use and abuse by members of the college-community. The program will kick off Thursday, October 30, with a panel discussion on "Perspectives on Alcohol in the Residence Hall" at 7:30 p.m. in Whiteface Hall. Various other programs are planned, including an Alcohol Issues Week, which will feature daily lunchtime programs on various aspects of alcohol use. Campus Life is also planning to form an Alanon Chapter, which is an organization to help people deal with an alcoholic in their family.

BEAUTIFICATION PROJECT AND PODIUM WORK NEARING COMPLETION

Two major campus projects are nearing completion, according to J. Derek Allan, Facilities Director. A one-year beautification program, which began last fall, has improved the landscaping of several areas of the campus, especially near the Whiteface, Algonquin, Adirondack, and Banks Hall complex, the Hawkins Hall pond and the field house. Grass, shrubs, and planting beds have been added to all of these areas, and the masonry work near the pond has been rejuvenated. Several areas of high pedestrian traffic have been legitimized with new paved walkways.

Phase I of the work on the podium deck and stairways is also in its final stage. The stairways have been slightly reshaped, decreasing the number of steps in them, and have been covered with granite, which will wear longer than the concrete initially used. The podium deck has been resurfaced with multi-faceted clay fired blocks, which not only add color to the area, but greatly improve drainage.

Allan added that further work on the podium is planned for the future, and mentioned the possibility of adding some form of seating and sculpture to the area.

STUDENT INTERNS COMMENDED BY STATE ATTORNEY GENERAL

Seven undergraduates who have been serving as interns in Assistant Attorney General David Smith's office in the area of consumer fraud were commended last week by New York State Attorney General Robert Abrams. Abrams visited Smith's office to review the Consumer Outreach Program instituted last year. With the help of the interns, who work eight to ten hours each week and earn three credits for their effort, the total dollar recovery in consumer fraud cases so far in 1980 has jumped to over $43,000, from $5,400 in 1979. Abrams commented that the local internship program was an excellent example of the integration of community and university resources. He also noted that this was one of the first internships to utilize other than law students in this type of work, and that it had proven to be very successful. The seven students in the program are sophomores Nancy Alger and Joan Hardman, junior Rod McCorvey, and seniors Linda Hills, Susan McCabe, Kathy Palermo, and Kathy Wells.

FACULTY SENATE RECOMMENDS EARLY OPENING FOR FALL 1981 SEMESTER

The Faculty Senate last week recommended to President Burke that the 1981 Fall semester begin before Labor Day and end before Christmas. A deviation from the traditional calendar, which calls for the semester to start after Labor Day and end before Christmas, will be necessary next year, because Labor Day is late (September 7), Christmas is a Friday, and two Jewish holidays both fall on weekdays. A 60-minute class hour had been proposed earlier as a means of staying within the usual boundaries, but the Senate defeated the motion, which would have added 10 minutes to each class hour, allowing the course to be taught fewer times. The Senate also considered a possible recommendation to continue the semester after the Christmas break and end in mid-January.

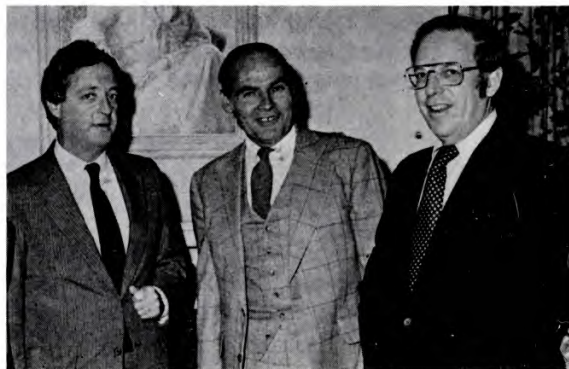

The Senate also continued to consider minor programs, and recommended that minors in mathematics, Spanish, German, biology, chemistry, computer science, philosophy, and theatre be approved by President Burke. Vice President for Academic Affairs Jerome Supple said that students graduating as early as May of 1981 could be awarded a minor.

SPEAKER FINK MEETS WITH PRESIDENT BURKE WHILE IN PLATTSBURGH AREA

Assembly Speaker Stanley Fink, one of the most powerful persons in the State Legislature, spent about two hours recently meeting with President Burke at the President's home. The occasion was a trip through the North Country by the Speaker.

Following lunch, the Speaker viewed a slide presentation on the College and then reviewed some statistics which indicated that the College is seriously underfunded relative to student/faculty ratios, instructional and departmental research, faculty support, students services, library allocations, etc. Speaker Fink appeared very interested in the information and asked many questions of President Burke.

The session was arranged by Bernard Amell, a member of the College Council and Clinton County Democratic Chairman. Also attending the meeting were Louis E. Wolfe, Council chairman; Mrs. Judith L. Duken, a member of the SUNY Board of Trustees; Ann Beyer, president of the Student Association; Bernard J. Seawell, vice president for finance and management; and Don Garrant, assistant to the president for college relations.

CARDINAL HOCKEY/BASKETBALL GAMES TO RAISE $$$ FOR BOOSTER CLUB

The Cardinal hockey team will open its home season on Saturday, Nov. 8 with an exhibition game against Division I power Colgate University at 7:30 p.m. at the Fieldhouse. The Cardinals last year were 1-1 against Colgate, winning here during Homecoming Weekend, and losing to the Red Raiders in Hamilton. Colgate's 1979-80 record of 18-12-1 was good enough to take them to the Division I playoffs and almost their entire team has returned, including Guy Lemonde, the top goalie in the division with a 3.00 GAA. The Cardinals come into the game with an upset 3-2 victory over Clarkson College under their belts, but without defenseman Doug Kimura, who suffered a leg injury in a scrimmage match and is expected to miss several games.

The varsity basketball team will take on the Portuguese National Basketball team on Wednesday, Nov. 12 at 8:00 p.m. at the Fieldhouse. A preliminary game between the college junior varsity and Vanier College of Montreal will start at 6:00 p.m. The Cardinal varsity team, who were 14-10 last year, lost 3 top scorers, but Coach Norm Law is optimistic about this year's team, which has several promising newcomers. The game will be played under Olympic rules, rather than NCAA rules.

Both games are being sponsored by the Cardinal Booster Club and proceeds from them will go into a scholarship fund to aid deserving athletes. Tickets are available at the Fieldhouse, the College Center Desk, The Barber Shop, Ormby's Sports World, and Fountain and Lucas Market. Reserved seats are $3, adults $2, and students $1. All passes will be suspended for these events.

CAMPUS UNITED WAY CONTRIBUTIONS REACH $7,815; STUDENTS SET FUNDRAISERS

Contributions to the 1980 Clinton County United Way fund drive have reached $7,815, according to campus coordinator Dr. Nicholas Troisi. This is 36.7% of the faculty and staff goal. The Sibley School team, chaired by Avis Swart, has donated $923 and is the first team to go over its goal, standing now at 115.5%. Robert Donaldson's Arts and Sciences "B" team is close behind, at 96.6% of its $2,500 goal. Business Affairs, led by Clara LaRose, reports in this week at 93.1%. Troisi said that several teams have not yet made any progress reports, and encouraged everyone who has not yet donated or pledged to the fund drive to do so as soon as possible.

Students have not reported on their progress toward reaching their $4,600 goal, but have several fundraising events planned. Whiteface Hall is sponsoring a co-ed kissing booth this week, with kisses going at the low rate of only 25¢ each. The booth is open through the dinner hour each evening in the Stage 14 Lounge, just off the Algonquin Dining Hall.

Students from Kent Hall have organized a coffeehouse to be held Sunday, November 9 from 3:00 to 5:00 p.m. at Plattsburgh's Pyramid Mall. Various individuals and groups will perform during the afternoon and donations will be accepted.

ACADEMIC PROGRAM, ACADEMIC REPUTATION AND LOCATION DRAW FRESHMEN

Plattsburgh's academic program, academic reputation, and geographic location are the three most influential factors in their decision to enroll here, according to this year's freshmen. Over 900 incoming freshmen who attended the summer 1980 orientation session were surveyed on this and other questions and the results of this survey have now been compiled. Sixty-four percent of the respondents indicated that the academic program was very important to their decision to attend PSUC, while 61% cited academic reputation, and 58% were heavily influenced by the college's location.

The survey also revealed that 94% of the respondents rated as a very important goal "obtaining specific skills that will be useful on a job." Fifty-seven percent indicated a need for financial aid to complete college, and 55% intend to pursue a master's degree or higher. For 63%, Plattsburgh was their first choice, and of the rest, 78% said it was their second choice. The freshmen also said that the most important source of information was friends and acquaintances who attend the college.

Vice President for Academic Affairs Dr. Jerome Supple and CCC Vice President and Academic Dean Norman Shea signed the agreements. The two institutions are presently working toward a total articulation agreement.

SA ELECTION DEC. 9; STUDENTS TO VOTE USING UNIQUE COMPUTER SYSTEM

Seniors Laura Sadowski and Ken Ennis are opposing each other in the race for the presidency of the Student Association which will culminate next week, but the big news about this election is the new computer balloting system. David Rock, a senior computer science major, has devised the system, which, as far as can be determined, is unique within SUNY. Until this year, SA voting had been done with paper ballots and results were determined by several people counting the votes by hand, which usually took all night and frequently produced mistakes. According to Rock, students will mark an IBM ballot form with a pencil and place it in the ballot box. When the polls close, the forms will be run through the College's Burroughs B-6800 computer and accurate results will be available within an hour. Rock recently ran a test on the system which showed excellent results. The program is flexible enough to be used for many other types of voting (i.e., homecoming queen, and campus-wide resolutions) and could be adapted for use by other campuses with the same computer.

Students will vote on Tuesday, December 9, in the two campus dining halls and the College Center. In addition to the race for the presidency, Greg O'Brien and Joan Braun will compete for executive vice president; Judy Giarratano and Richard Irish are both running for VP for student services, and Ven Vardin and Joel R. Graves are vying for VP for academics. Dan Finkle is unopposed for Finance VP; Patrick Kane is alone on the ballot for Activities VP; Kathy vonColln is the only candidate for Arts VP, and Shelly Wilsey is unopposed for Student Assembly delegate. Mark Sandt is unopposed for Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals, and Rosemary Buffa, William A'Hearn, Tim Mante, and Gregg Sweet are the candidates for Associate Justice (four to be elected).

Fifteen senators will be elected from the following 31 candidates: Debbie Hagan, Shelly Wilsey, Troy Oechsner, Sharon O'Sullivan, Tom Swan, Scott Schimmel, Timothy McCauley, Peter Williamson, Lee Davis, Cathy Kenny, Bob Whitney, Jamal Dayah, Randy Prior, Larry Zacks, Keith Newfield, Mindy Gasthalter, Lenny Gersten, William Jones, Tim Turnwall, Philip Cox, Mary Cherry, Sally Baker, Barbara Janke, Jeff Skinner, Abby Fisher, Pam Uhl, John Fox, Dawn Fratangelo, Judy Jones, Richard Luck, and Helene Richman.

GRADUATE ENROLLMENT ON THE RISE

Graduate enrollment is on the increase, according to a report by Dr. Paul Roman, Dean of Graduate Studies and Research. The total number of active students in graduate programs has increased 7.7% from the fall of 1979 to a total of 461. The increase in the number of active and matriculated is even higher, standing now at 209, up 10.6% over last year's figure.

The Professional Studies area has shown the greatest increase in newly matriculated students, with 72, up from 49 in the previous year, while Arts and Science went from 23 to 26, and the Master's Program in Liberal Studies held steady at 16.

The Fall, 1980 actual headcount for programs shows the greatest number of graduate students in Counseling (45), followed by N-6 Reading Specialist (23), Administration and Supervision (22) and Psychology (20). These programs all gained students this year, as did Biology, Speech and Hearing, History, N-9 Social Science Education, and Home Economics Education. Chemistry, N-6 Classroom Teacher, and the M.A.L.S. program all showed a decline in headcount.

LAPS FOR KIDS RAISES $1,740 FOR MARCH OF DIMES

Thirty-three students raised $1,740 recently for the March of Dimes, by swimming laps in the Memorial Hall pool and signing up sponsors to pay them for each lap. Resident assistants Lynne Macheda (Adirondack Hall) and Jane Serencsics (Macomb Hall) put together the "Laps for Kids" as part of their RA programming. The swimmers, representing each dorm and off-campus students as well, spent two weeks signing up pledges and then swam as many laps as they could in a one-hour period. Several area businesses donated prizes to encourage the participants. Freshman Michelle Dumas collected the most money for her efforts and sophomore Patty McAllister signed up the most sponsors.

CAMPUS UNITED WAY DRIVE AT 91.6% OF GOAL

Contributions to the Campus United Way are slowing to a trickle, but have inched up to $19,512.48 or 91.6% of the College's goal. Only $1,787.52 is needed to reach 100%, and campus coordinator Dr. Nicholas Troisi urges everyone who has not pledged or contributed to do so.

Students have collected $1,850, and are continuing their efforts. The Student Association recently donated part of the proceeds from Livingston Taylor's appearance at the Sundowner to the United Way. Last Friday, Macdonough Hall residents held a rose sale, and on Sunday, the quartet "Amnesia" played a benefit in Macomb Hall. Proceeds from both events will also go to the United Way. Harrington Hall's penny drive is still underway and residents will be visiting offices on campus December 17th to collect pennies.

DR. GEORGE ARMELAGOS TO LECTURE ON HUMAN NUTRITION

On Friday, December 12, Dr. George J. Armelagos of the University of Massachusetts will be on campus to present two public lectures: one, at 1 p.m. in FOB 105, will be an illustrated presentation of techniques in skeletal pathology as they are used to reconstruct the health patterns of prehistoric population. The other, at 3 p.m. in CL 203 will be a discussion of world-wide perspectives on human nutrition.

Dr. Armelagos is co-author of "Consuming Passions," a recently published and widely acclaimed discussion of biological and cultural factors which affect human eating habits. He is also the scholar responsible for the recent discovery that prehistoric groups in Nubia were accidentally dosing themselves with natural tetracycline and were therefore remarkably free of infectious diseases. He and his students have for several years been studying the skeletons of Indians from the Dickson Mounds in Illinois and tracing changing patterns of health and longevity among these Indians as they "progressed" from hunting and gathering to agriculture. Their research has resulted in the observation that lifespan decreased and disease stress became more severe as this change occurred.

JANUARY ADMISSIONS APPLICATIONS UP 6% OVER LAST YEAR: 63% TRANSFERS

Applications for January admissions are being received at a rate of 6% higher than last year, according to Admissions Director David Truax. Truax said that over 900 applications have been processed, and slightly over 400 have been accepted. He expects that approximately 300 of those students will enroll. To date, admissions deposits are coming in at a rate of 34% above last year, and 187 have already been received. Sixty-three percent of the students accepted for January admission are transfers, primarily from SUNY two-year colleges. Twenty-one percent are new freshmen, while the remaining sixteen percent are either foreign students or re-admitted students.

ANNUAL ALUMNI FUND DRIVE REACHES GOAL WITH TWO WEEKS TO GO

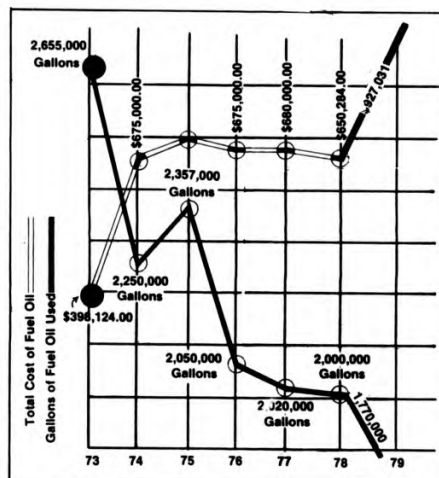

The 1980 Annual Alumni Fund Drive has reached its $25,500 goal with two weeks remaining in this year's campaign. Alumni Director Mal Lavery anticipates that the drive will result in a 20% increase over last year's total of $23,000. The proceeds from the drive are used for student scholarships.

Telethons held in the Mid-Hudson Region, the Capital District, and Long Island were instrumental in this year's success, according to Lavery.

FUEL OIL CONSUMPTION DOWN, COSTS UP 54.5%

Fuel oil consumption was down significantly for fiscal year 1979-80. But the cost of fuel oil went through the ceiling. The College reduced consumption by 239,900 gallons over fiscal 1978-79, which is a savings of 11.5%. Despite this reduction in consumption, achieved through conservation, costs increased 54.5%. The College's fuel oil bill reached $927,031, an increase of $276,747 over the previous fiscal year.

With two thirds of the 1980-81 fiscal year passed, fuel consumption is up 5.3% or 44,000 gallons over consumption for the same period last year, according to J. Derek Allan, Facilities Director. "However," Allan added, "with a 5% increase in heating degree days, it may be assumed that we are holding the line. We need to make every effort to conserve our oil use over the next four months if we are to show a reduced consumption for this fiscal year. This will require energetic management and the full cooperation of everyone if we are going to maintain a yearly reduction in total consumption of fuel oil." Costs are another matter, as they are up 18.7% over the same period last year, assuring that the College's bill will break the million dollar mark this year.

FINANCIAL AID PEER COUNSELOR PROGRAM CONTINUES TO EXPAND

Two years ago, the Financial Aid office instituted an "outreach table" in an effort to provide financial aid information to as many potential recipients as possible. In the fall of 1978, one professional adviser staffed the table for four hours each week. The following semester, three professionals worked a total of nine hours each week. In the fall of 1979, nine students were recruited and trained to serve as peer counselors and, with the office staff, manned the table for a total of 26 hours per week.

This semester, an academic advisement component was added to the program. It was renamed the Student Outreach Center, given a new logo, moved to a very accessible location in the College Center, and is now manned thirty-five hours each week by 19 student volunteers.

A further advancement in the program will be made this spring when two courses, one offering two credits and one offering one credit, will be offered to students interested in refining their peer counselor communication skills.

SHAFFER TO ADDRESS GRADUATES AT FRIDAY'S COMMENCEMENT

Dr. Lawrence Shaffer, assistant professor of psychology, and a recent recipient of the Chancellor's Award for Excellence in Teaching, will be the principal speaker during the winter commencement exercises honoring December graduates. The commencement program will be held on Friday, (Dec. 19) at 2:00 p.m. in the Hawkins Hall large auditorium. Shaffer's address is titled "Higher Education as a Biological Adaptation."

Approximately 300 candidates will receive bachelor's or master's degrees, or certificates of advanced study. President Burke will preside at the exercises and will confer degrees. Vice President Supple will present the candidates.

Following commencement, a reception for graduates and their guests will be hosted by President Burke in the College Center Ballroom. Participants in the program are asked to assemble no later than 1:30 p.m. in Hawkins Hall.

STUDENT ACTOR CHOSEN FOR REGIONAL COMPETITION

Kenneth Roberts, who played Sir Toby in the recent NTA production of Twelfth Night, has been selected to participate as an acting scholar in the Regional American College Theatre Festival. The theatre department entered the festival for the first time this year, and, although the play was not picked for the regional competition by the visiting judges, Roberts, a junior theatre major from New York City was chosen to compete for the Irene Ryan Scholarship between January 7-14 in Delaware. During the competition, Roberts will perform two scenes, one in his role as Sir Toby and another of his choice. Approximately 45 other student actors from 55 states and the District of Columbia will also participate. The winner of the regional competition will then go on to Washington, D.C. to compete for a $2,500 scholarship.

PSUC FACULTY HELP LOCAL AGENCIES WITH SHARING RESOURCES

Three college faculty members shared their talents and knowledge with local human service agencies Monday at a workshop sponsored by Clinton Community College, SUNY Plattsburgh, and the Office of the Aging. Drs. Jane and Peter Gore, who have done considerable research on the subject of agency collaboration in Clinton County, presented a morning program. The Gores, whose research has shown that many agencies are unsure just how to go about sharing their resources, gave pointers on how to begin doing this. Many human service agencies have found their budgets growing tighter over the past few years, and face even more cuts in the future, and must begin to work more closely together in order to provide needed services. The afternoon session consisted of small group discussions. Dr. Rudolph Bobka chaired a group discussion of energy efficiency for mobile homes.

Season's Greetings

FROM PRESIDENT BURKE:

I wish all of the students, faculty and staff at the College the happiest of holidays. I hope that those of you who are taking a long journey during the break in semesters will have a safe trip.
